MINISTRY OF STEEL, MINES AND FUEL(Department of Mining)RESOLUTIONNew Delhi, the 4th May 1957

No. 315(1)/57-MIN.—The India School of Mines and Applied Geology, Dhanbad, has hitherto been functioning directly under the administrative control of the Central Government in the Ministry of Natural Resources and Scientific Research. The Central Government is advised by an Advisory Council in respect of all matters concerning the School. An Executive Committee has also been set up to look after the administration of the School.

2. It has recently been decided to enlarge the scope of the School by increasing the rate of annual admissions in the existing courses of Mining Engineering and Applied Geology and by instituting additional courses in Petroleum Technology and Applied Geophysics. The institution of a course in Metallurgy is also under contemplation.

3. To enable the School to function effectively in the changed circumstances, it has been decided, as an immediate measure to set up a Governing Council in the place of the present Advisory Council and Executive Committee.

4. The Governing Council will consist of the following:—

- (i) Chairman (to be nominated by the Central Government).
- (ii) A nominee of the All India Council for Technical Education.
- (iii) A representative of the Ministry of Steel, Mines and Fuel.
- (iv) A representative of the Ministry of Education.
- (v) A representative of the Ministry of Finance.
- (vi) The Director, Fuel Research Institute (Ex-Officio).
- (vii) A representative of the Bihar University.
- (viii) The Director, Mining Research Station, (Ex-Officio).
- (ix) to (xiii) Five non-officials to be nominated by the Central Government of whom three shall be persons with experience of Oil Technology, Mining, Metallurgy and allied subjects.
- (xiv) The Director of the School of Mines and Applied Geology, (Ex-Officio).

5. Unless terminated earlier by death, resignation or cancellation of the appointment, the term of office of each member of the Council, other than ex-officio members, shall expire at the end of three years from the date of appointment, but he shall be eligible for re-appointment.

6. The Chairman shall preside over the meetings of the Council; in the absence of the Chairman, the members present at the meeting may elect a member from amongst themselves to preside over the meeting. Five members shall be sufficient to constitute the quorum for meetings of the Council.

7. Subject to the general direction and control of the Central Government, the Council shall discharge the following functions and such other functions as the Central Government may specify from time to time:—

1. Within the limits of the budget provision:
 - (a) To take decisions on major questions of policy relating to the administration and working of the School.
 - (b) To institute courses of study at the School or modify courses at the School.
 - (c) To institute teaching as well as non-teaching posts in the School in accordance with the procedure laid down by the Central Government from time to time.
 - (d) To ensure economy in the use of funds sanctioned for the School, approve proposals for re-appropriation as between different departments of the School and
 - (e) To institute fellowships, scholarships, prizes, medals.
2. To prepare the budget estimates in consultation with the Director of the School and make recommendations thereon for the consideration of the Central Government.
3. To control and generally regulate the maintenance of standards of instruction, education and examinations in the School.
4. To consider and approve the annual report and annual statement of accounts, the financial estimates and the action to be taken on audit reports.

8. Subject to the general control of the Central Government the Council may make regulations relating to:—

1. Admission of students to the School.
- 2(a) Conduct of examinations and grant of diplomas and other academic distinctions to the students of the School.
- (b) The maintenance and management of halls, hostels and other buildings of the School.
- (c) The fixation and recovery of fees and other charges.

(d) The supervision and control of the residents and maintenance of discipline in the School; arrangements for promoting the health, general welfare and cultural and corporate life; conditions of residence of students at the School.

(e) Organisation of departments of teaching.

3. Qualifications of teachers of the School.

4. Specification of the powers and duties of the School including those of the Director and the Registrar.

9. The Governing Council shall have the following powers:—

1. Within the limits of the School budget as approved by the Central Government.

(a) To accord administrative approval for construction works required for the School and also to accord expenditure sanctions not exceeding 10 lakhs for such works in each case.

(b) To sanction expenditure for the purchase of equipment and machinery.

(c) To sanction expenditure for the purchase of stores.

(d) To sanction recurring expenditure on contingencies upto Rs. 1,000 per annum in each case and non-recurring expenditure upto Rs. 5,000 in each case.

(e) To create, in cadres approved by the Central Government such posts on the ministerial, technical, non-ministerial and teaching staff as may be considered necessary for the efficient running of the School on scales of pay the maximum of which does not exceed Rs. 1,150 per month.

2. Subject to general or special orders of the Central Government in regard to filling of posts, to make selection for appointments to posts other than those to which recruitment is made in consultation with the UPSC and to grant up to five advance increments to candidates selected and appointed by the Governing Council and to grant advance increments to candidates recruited in consultation with the U.P.S.C. in accordance with the Commission's recommendations.

10. Subject to the approval of the Central Government the Governing Council may delegate any of its powers to any sub-committee or authority under it.

11. The Governing Council shall have power to constitute such Advisory Committees or sub-committees as it considers necessary for the efficient performance of its functions and duties.

12. The Director shall be the principal academic and executive officer of the School and especially responsible for the proper administration of the School and for the imparting of instruction and maintenance of discipline therein. He may exercise such powers and perform such other duties as may be delegated to him by the Council from time to time.

13. The Registrar of the School shall act as Secretary of the Council.

Ordered that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India
